Details: Keith Crisp is an upcoming pop/rock artist from Gainesville, FL. While living in Detroit, MI until age 25, Keith was deeply involved in the music scene, opening for such national acts as Chuck Berry, Ray Charles, Great White and Warrant, as well as performing in The Gaylords popular musical, Famiglia. Keith also appeared on Lansing, MIs main rock station, 92.1 FM the Edge, and was featured in numerous commercials on Detroits own, 101.1 FM the WRIF. As a prominent figure in the Detroit metro area, Keith has performed at a wealth of premier Detroit venues including such events as Arts, Beats and Eats, Woodward Dream Cruise, Harley Fest, and Ferndale Blues Festival, and such establishments as the Emerald Theatre, Machine Shop, Magic Bag, I-Rock, Hayloft Liquor Stand, and Blue Goose Tavern among many others. Eventually Keith's musical career culminated in Detroit as he seized the opportunity to front the Motor City's own Black Cat Blues Band, a highly revered blues trio known for their edge, swagger, and ability to heighten their performance to the level of an anthem rock show. After spending a year and a half with the band gigging on weekends at clubs across the metro area, Keith left the band and moved to Gainesville, FL, where he is now pursuing his career as singer/songwriter. As an original artist, Keith presents a unique acoustic sound, which features a blend of rock, pop-rock, and blues. As a seasoned performer, he is known for his tenacious charisma and innate ability to capture and hold his audiences attention. While working as a High School English teacher during the day, he spends his nights and weekends performing and preparing for his emergence at the national level. Armed with the talent, drive, and knowhow to succeed, he is ready, now more than ever, to make it happen.
