Singer/Songwriter/TEXAN. Songs about drinkin', cheatin', livin', dyin', small towns. 11 MP3 Songs

COUNTRY: Modern Country, COUNTRY: Country Rock Details: This born bred Texan grew up in a small town near Waco Flat, TX to be exact. His young dreams consisted of two things: Playing for the Dallas Cowboys Music. Luckily for the industry, music took the lead. Looking back, Ive realized music was always a big part of my life. But it wasnt until the first time I stepped on stage that I realized it was what I was supposed to do. In Texas he opened for such Country Music legends as Chris LeDoux, Gene Watson, Gary Stewart Joe Diffie; and in 1999 made the move to Nashville in an old blue van in hopes of following his dreams of being another great Texas artist. He began like most new Nashville musicians, by playing cover tunes on Broadway, but soon realized that to be taken seriously he needed to write more. The more he wrote and performed, the more passionate he became about songwriting and becoming a part of the music industry. Lonny has a sound you could say comes from a blend that is not of Nashville standards. When you hear Lonny you may think of Steve Earle, Merle Haggard, Jack Ingram, Dwight Yoakam, Pat Green, old trucks whiskey.and of course TEXAS. Growing up I listened to a wide variety of music. Ive jammed to everything from Charlie Rich to Guns N- Roses! His influences give him an edge to his sound that you dont hear in a lot of music today. Lonnys latest release, Changing Lanes has 11 cuts on it, 10 of which were written or co-written by him and definitely have a Merle/Earle feel but with an original sound. One minute youre listening to an introspective ballad like Same Ol Me and the next youre speeding down lifes highway in the title cut Changing Lanes. My philosophy on songwriting is I should take the listener from point A to point B. That philosophy has evolved Lonny into not only a great songwriter performer, but also a great storyteller.
