KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop, KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music Details: "Sometimes mellow, sometimes rockin', but always full of whimsy and childhood truth, Lunch Money brings indie rock into the forefront of children's music culture. Molly Ledford's smooth and charming vocals really emphasize Lunch Money's unstated motto: life is all about the details. It's kids that notice the 'thing at the drive-thru where you put the money in,' but music fans everywhere are noticing Lunch Money and their dedication to living and preserving childhood through music." -Leah Labreakfast Host/Coordinator The Playground, 88.9 FM WERS (Boston) "Molly Ledford named her band Lunch Money after the 'spirit of independence' she recalls as a young schoolkid 'with those precious crumpled dollars in your sock.' The South Carolina-based trio has a pleasing acoustic sound, with Ledford's delightful voice on lead vocals. The band's debut CD 'Silly Reflection' is filled with songs that wistful parents can also enjoy." -Billy Heller NY Post "While not intended to be educational, the fun and whimsical songs touch on everyday life. For example, 'Tricycle' includes the lyrics: 'On a bicycle you don't know how to stop. You have to ride into the grass and tip right over, but my tricycle will never let me down.' The lively 'Yes, We Have Rhythm' will have kids clapping and jiving along." -Maren Ostergard School Library Journal Special Note: The cd case folds out and contains all the lyrics.
