Details: Mark Henley is a song writer from the Been There and Done That School of Hard Knocks. He writes from his heart about his life and experiences during the long, strange trip. Some of his influences are Neil Young, John Prine and David Allan Coe. His style is plain, based in southern rock and modern country. Some of his songs are spiritual and others are definitely in the flesh. Some are silly and others slice to the bone. He shares his love for Jesus as well as his struggle to reach for a better life.
