"Keep an eye on this Mr. "S" guy, he's a cool guy and he's poised to be the next big thing." DJ Belinda Miller, Greasy Kids Stuff, WFMU-FM, New Jersey "If you want to introduce your children to great rock n roll in a format thats specifically geared to them, Songs For Family Friends Frogs by Mr. S is for you. But watch out it wont be long before those same kids are swiping copies of "Rubber Soul" and "Exile on Main Street" from your CD collection." Eric Weiner, Author and Freelance Journalist "Mr. S. clearly knows the difference between "children's music" and "music for everyone, including children," and wisely drives straight down the latter path with a collection of songs the young ones can enjoy without feeling talked/sung down to. It rocks, but rocks gently enough. Michael Lynch, Fufkin.com Frankie the French Fry sounds like the Ramones taking a detour through Sesame Street. Be a Superhero, give Mr.S a shot! Clyde Kerlew, Brooklyn Public Library On his newly released CD, Songs For Family, Friends Frogs MR. S AKA Ed Stankewick, always amazingly hits the nail on the head with his sweet combo of hard rock n roll riffs and a heavy dose of right-on kiddie hooks. Ken Shankman, Elmore Magazine/Ken-Do Promotions Fantastic! Frankie the French Fry made me laugh out loud! Tony Mac, Beef Stewdios "If the Buffalo Springfield and the Pixies got together to make a kid's record I imagine

this as the result." Michelle Bosco, Alt-Chain Zine Mr. S is really ridiculous, silly, and fun. Grace, 2nd Grader Portland Maine
