Smooth Inspirational Christian Jazz. Steve's milk chocolate award winning baritone voice delivers a selection of new and old songs that utilize big orch, big band, ballads and uptempo jazz flavorings. 11 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Smooth Jazz, GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: Steve Darmody Artist (baritone/smooth jazz) One More Day (onemoreday.ws) has eleven new songs sung in a wonderful, smooth jazz, vocal style accompanied by equally lush, and sometimes fun arrangements. Produced by Dick Tunney, these authentic arrangements feature Jeff Steinberg, conductor of the Nashville Pops and world renowned song writer and arranger, Ralph Carmichael. You can compare this CD to the musical styles of Harry Connick, Jr., Michael Buble', and Bing Crosby. Steve Darmody has one of the smoothest voices in Gospel Music. Ever since winning the Estes Park Christian Artists' National Vocal Competitions, his smooth, bass-baritone voice has often been compared to milk chocolate. He travels throughout the world, singing for many denominational groups and national gatherings. He has been heard on many national Christian telecasts and has a long list of guest appearances, including the 1996 Atlanta Olympics and more recently, the Crystal Cathedral. For 25 years, Steve has been recording and performing inspirational Christian music. His sixth CD marks his first full step into a new genre of Christian music inspirational smooth jazz. He has always loved this style, incorporating at least one song in each prior CD (Sweet By and By, Mary Did You Know, etc.) Now, with his new release One More Day, he moves firmly into this genre, keeping old friends while introducing himself to an entirely new audience. With well over 2000 concerts and appearances on his resume, Steve has ministered in an unbelievable array of situations and venues from military bases, hospitals, and shopping malls to fine performing arts centers here and abroad. He is heard on radio and seen on numerous television ministries and networks. Multiple overseas tours have taken him, literally, around the world. But his heart has always been in the ministry and mission of the local church, especially in its outreach! His hope is that people will carry these songs into their daily lives, and be reminded that the claims of Christ, clearly found in His Word, will produce a life filled with contentment and peace.
