A novel about the nature of the thrill. The thriller meets erotica in a marriage made in hell. The perfect gentleman is a lady killer. A man who will do anything to satisfy the most flippant desire, stop at nothing for a fleeting moment's stimulation of body and mind, whatever pleasure or suffering he causes in the process, no matter what price he ultimately will have to pay. The thrill for some is in flying a plane. Others like to jump. He prefers to do the pushing. How far will a man go to reach new heights, new depths? Sex is not enough to fill the void of such a shallow abyss. How far will a man go to cheapen a thrill? As far as he can.
