Bridge Through the Mist Denise A. Agnew When Alenna Carstairs is hurled through time into 1318, Scotland's medieval world brings her face to face with hot, sexy Tynan of MacBrahin. He is as frustrated by her twenty-first-century attitudes as she is infuriated with his barbaric manners, but none of that matters when the searing attraction growing between them erupts. Yet Alenna senses a vulnerability within him and vows to discover the heartbreak that has scarred his soul. World-weary knight Tynan of MacBrahin lost two loves to the brutality of other men. He can't forgive himself for failing to protect the women who depended on him. When Alenna saves his life, her independent spirit stirs desires so strong within him he can't resist her. A depraved baron soon wants Alenna for his own and Tynan must find a way to conquer this powerful man to save her. Alenna struggles with soul-staggering desire for Tynan, but most of all, she must convince Tynan his love is not lethal and she is the one who can bring shine to his armor again.
