'Antimatterman' was born in mid 2000 during the creation of a track of the same name. AntiMatterMan takes it further, to darker techno, break beats and industrial cybernetics. Expressing the "mental storm of a million thoughts, being a mixture of man and machine of emotion and rationalism". "Sometimes I ask myself: Have we ever been human? Do we have a soul that needs a body? Do we finally need a body? Aren't we just biomachines?" The Cyber-Genetic blood in your Musical Headroom. AntiMatterMan.
