Moore Bio: Born and raised in Detroit, I come from a very musical family, my father is a well known classical tenor. In grade school and high school I studied, piano, violin, percussion and voice, and performed in choirs in school and church. My high school vocal quartet, Simply Complex, performed at the Fox Theater as part of the Evening of Fine Arts Showcase. At the end of my senior year in High School, I was offered a full scholarship to the Jazz Studies Program at Michigan State University. My four years of study at Michigan State offered great musical growth, learning jazz styles and improvisation. During this time, I began performing professionally, singing concerts and clubs, gaining valuable experience at every turn. I have performed with jazz greats such as Jon Hendricks, Wycliff Gordon, Rodney Whitaker, Ursala Walker, and Buddy Budson and have been cliniced by Mark Murphy. In November of 2004 I premiered some of my original works in concert at McGreggor Auditorium, Detroit, to a full house of appreciative listeners. I have been the featured singer with MSU Jazz Band One for numerous concerts at Wharton Center and around the state. Recently I was asked to go to New York City with Jazz Band One as a guest to perform Marvin Gayes Whats Going On Suite at Jazz at Lincoln Center in Manhattan. I am just beginning my career as a performer and teacher, however, my passion for the music brings a level of professionalism of one who has been working for years.
