Details: This Cd was "released" right before summer of 2000. I think that we just kinda threw this together because it was an option to make cds on mp3.com. I think that in addition, we had some songs and stuff, and so we're like lets put them on Cd, and try to sell them to some junior high kids or something. Yeah, that was awesome. So, the art for the front cover was made by Adrian. You see, at this time Adrian had a little usb web camera thingy, and so there were lots of pictures of him and Chris (who is me, because I am writting this. Yay!) on his computer, but no pictures of Bobby. But we couldn't let Bobby not be in the Cd cover, so we're like "let's draw him in all crappy, and it will be funny!" On the old website (the weird xoomthing that I doubt anyone ever went to,) we made jokes about not having any pictures of bobby. it was actually quite funny. The libretto inside picture (below) is a picture of the audience from our very first live concert, july 7 2000. This concert was funny, because Adrian and I had a performance in the musical theatre right after this show, and I had to wear a moustache and thoes dorky shoes. So i put on my moustach and makeup before the concert so I could just go to theatre and be all ready. yeah... that was awesome! I guess I should write more about it somewhere else, since this is supposed to be about the CD. Uh, this cd has all the earliest songs on it. Apparently some people bought it off mp3.com. Like many of our cds there's several versions out there, so if you have one, you should consider yourself lucky!
