A voice that at once recalls the sultriness of country chanteuse Shelby Lynne and the unflinching confidence of Fiona Apple. 9 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: "With a voice that at once recalls the sultriness of country chanteuse Shelby Lynne and the unflinching confidence of Fiona Apple, San Francisco's Dani Linnetz makes a strong first impression...Linnetz's songwriting creates a sense of uneasiness and danger through a swirling mass of earthy sounds. While voices as strong as hers don't come along all too often, when they do, they tend to get pushed in questionable musical directions (i.e. Christina Aguilera). It's more than refreshing to hear one that is clearly on the right path." - Matt Fink, All Music Guide In the past 4 years Dani has called Los Angeles, New York City, and San Francisco all home. Each city has inspired multitudes of songs and a serious inability to stay in one place too long. Not such a bad thing when you consider that in the past year alone she has toured through, CA, AZ, NM, TX, OR, WA, NJ, PA, and NY. All the while keeping her home cities thoroughly and regularly entertained. With influences ranging from Ella to The Cure, Patty Griffin to The Pixies and far beyond, Dani's songwriting is a comfortable mixture of pop, rock, folk, blues, and country topped with her unique soulful vocals. Simple, honest songs played with just an acoustic guitar and the immense power and emotional intensity of her voice. Dani is a performing member of Indiegrrl (indiegrrl.com), DivaBands (divabands.com), GoGirlsMusic.com, and Women In Rock (womeninrock.com) and her latest full-length release, The Milk, was awarded a listeners choice award for best independent CD of 2001 at Kweevak.com. You can hear her on college and public radio from Santa Barbara to Austin and beyond.
