Everyone's Different as the title suggests 12 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Love Songs, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: The easy listening music of New Zealand born songwriter Don MacLeod will captivate audiences of all ages " and you will find your toes tapping and maybe even catch yourself singing along in no time Don is a product of the late forties and has a distinctive voice which can change at a moments notice and easily flows through emotional love songs and those songs having general slice of life themes that reach out and touch you. I feel and sing songs that most people can relate to and his performance features a variety of musical influences ranging from the likes of the Beatles, Elton John, Bee Gees, Dr. Hook, the Eagles to Robbie Williams just to name a few as well as my own Compositions. He definately see's himself more as a Songwriter than a Singer. With friend Adrian Stuckey, Don has a collection of unreleased original songs on CD they entitled "Everyone's Different" and Adrian's musical talent, craft and backing vocals added an emotional momentum to the lyrics. All 12 Songs on the Album "EVERYONE'S DIFFERENT" are original compositions. One thing is certain , he loves what he does " and it shows
