This Midwestern son of a Catholic priest and a nun possesses a pure musical vision: original and emotional art. His young sounding voice depicts youth and rawness, but his intelligent and poetic lyrics tackle mature subjects and often explore spiritual depths. His genre diversity echoes an eclectic personality. His stage presence emits experience. His groovy driven, band-approach to songwriting reveals a hip, sophisticated vibe. From 1995 to 2003, Ethan Keller was the driving force behind the funk-rock band Greenscene. Within 8 years, Keller released 4 albums with the group. Performances on national T.V (MTV, Jenny Jones), and winning Jim Beam National Band Search (2001), helped the band earn international exposure. After years of coast to coast touring, private public industry showcases (SXSW, NACA, NEMO, EATM, MFNW, MMC), Keller started over in 2004 under his own name, and released his solo debut in 2006, entitled Face Light. His sophomore effort, a 6-song EP entitled "One Way" was released in July 2008. After 16 years of performing from L.A. to NYC, Ethan Keller is recognized as a musical pioneer in his home state of Wisconsin. He has sold over 7000 records, and shared the stage with countless national acts. Having performed at prestigious festivals, theaters, coffeehouses, bars churches in 35 states, Keller relentlessly perseveres; always gigging, recording, and continuing to work at the musical career he was ordained to pursue.
