Show all album songs: Songs for the Loneliest Girl in the Universe Songs Details: James Stauber was born in 1976 in the Czech Republic. He moved around with his family for a while until he settled in Chicago. He has studied piano and music theory since he was 4 years old. At the age of 8 he took up the bassoon, when he turned 16 he began playing classical and electric guitars and a year later started his first vocal performance classes. He has studied the harpsichord and other subjects related to early music. He programs electronic beats/loops. He has performed in classical music, rock/metal, acoustic, and techno/rave venues. He writes both classical and popular music. His earliest compositions date back to the year 1982. To-date he has recorded seven CDs of which Lost Dreams is the latest addition. He enjoys traveling, reading poetry, horseback riding, sword fighting, watching historical (French Cinema) and sci-fi (Hollywood) movies, drinking fine wine, and many many other pleasures the world has to offer. He has a passion for studying these: theology, history, biology, medicine. For 15 years he has been practicing kung-fu. He cannot play soccer very well and he is a terrible basketball player.
