JohnStone has been unleashing its conscious roots reggae vibes in the DC area for several years now. With an arsenal of crucial roots-influenced original compositions the band has steadily become one of USA's finest reggae acts. 10 MP3 Songs WORLD: Reggae, WORLD: Island Details: JohnStone is a roots reggae band from the D.C. area touring the mid-Atlantic in support of their new CD "Eyes Open" which they self-produced and released in August 2005. Over six years performing together, JohnStone has assembled an arsenal of crucial roots-influenced original compositions, complemented by tasteful covers saluting their favorite reggae artists. Winner of several DC Reggae Music Awards and nominee for best reggae band in the annual DC area WAMMIES the past two years, JohnStone has appeared with Burning Spear, Toots The Maytals, Third World, Sister Carol, Yellowman, The Itals and many others. JohnStone is looking to expand its geographic range to include new venues all over the East Coast and beyond (ideas welcome!). The band plays venues of all types, including restaurants, nightclubs, festivals, weddings, cruises, house parties and more. JohnStone has been unleashing its conscious roots reggae vibes in the DC area for several years now. With an arsenal of crucial roots-influenced original compositions, complemented by tasteful covers, the band is well-equipped to handle venues of all sorts. JohnStone has a timeless approach to music, combining a powerful lyrical message with haunting Roots rhythms, occasionally peppered with frenzied, bouncy Ska and Rocksteady originals and covers that keep the crowd moving all night long. Having performed together in various formations over the years, the players have a keen sense of each other's style and are able to compliment the works of one another. All members of the band are songwriters, but are most often led by the unstoppable lyrical deliveries of lead singer Andre N. White.
