Moorman... is originally from Parma, OH, USA (outside of Cleveland) and currently lives in Wellington, New Zealand where he moved after finding the love of his life "down under" and marrying. He has been performing professionally since 1985, doing concerts, light opera, and musical theater throughout the world. His recordings have made their way into homes in each of the US states, and across each of the seven continents. Concert tours have spanned both Eastern and Western Europe and New Zealand; additionally, he worked for Carnival Cruise Lines, and once cantored the High Mass at St. Peters Basilica in Vatican City. In 2004, he had the privilege of singing at a preview showing of Mel Gibson's The Passion of the Christ, for Catholic dignitaries in California, USA. Some stage roles include Tommy in Brigadoon, Capt. Paul Fontaine in The Desert Song, and Curly in Oklahoma! Joseph is a member of the professional Actors Equity Association (AEA), American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (AFTRA), and Catholic Association of Musicians (CAM). He thanks God for the many blessings in his life and challenges others to use their talents as "prayer to God."
