Details: a lily is james vella, better known as the guitar player of the great British instrumentalists yndi halda, of Burnt Toast Vinyl and Big Scary Monsters Records. born into a musical family - his mother works as a music teacher and he is directly descended from the composers Giuseppe and Luigi Vella - but favouring creative writing over music until his teens, james could hardly play an instrument until he ventured into a guitar shop shortly before his 15th birthday. he formed a band with his best friends (yndi halda), and they learned to play their instruments together whilst struggling with adolescence. a lily was born out of wide-eyed gentleness and sleey-eyed haze that couldn't be expressed in yndi halda, and so, laptop and guitar in hand, and with a head full of ideas, james began to write computer music. currently writing love songs for leanna, the entirety of wake:sleep is for her.
