Stunning world fusion guitar playing! 11 MP3 Songs in this album (57:14) ! Related styles: WORLD: Flamenco, WORLD: World Fusion Details: Amin Safari was born in Tehran, Iran, and grew up in Sweden, where he started playing the guitar. He obtained his masters degree in Biomedical Sciences from the University of Umea as well as a degree in classical music from the Folk University of Sweden. Amins enthusiasm to compose and perform music led him to form two hard rock bands in Sweden; the Seventh Sign, and the Skeleton Crew, as well as an Iranian band called Atash. The Skeleton Crew released their first album Mummified in 1997. Amin became increasingly fascinated by the flamenco music style after he moved to the US, and has composed and performed with local artists in Houston in many different venues.
