Related styles: COUNTRY: Traditional Country, COUNTRY: Honky Tonk People who are interested in Ray Price Marty Robbins Merle Haggard should consider this download. Details: Bill Eaton was born in Powell, Wyoming in 1937. Bill began playing guitar while in the Marine Corps. His first gig was at the Anchor Bar in Oceanside, California. He played in the USO with Wynn Stewart, Freddie Hart and the legendary Johnny Cash and the Tennessee Two. Bill moved back to Powell and started a band with his friend Del Cannon, who sings "Back On the Wagon" on this album. They were the first country band to play in the local honky tonks. Bill has been writing songs since the 50's and published and recorded several songs. Bobby Buttrum recorded two of his songs. Bill's first passion is writing songs and performing them in public. Bill Eaton wrote all eleven songs on the CD. He can be seen performing at Cassie's in Cody on Thursday nights, the Edelweiss bar in Clark on Sundays from 4pm to 8pm and other clubs on the Weekend. Bill hopes you enjoy the album.
