A cross of traditional World Celtic and folk. 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: Traditional Folk, WORLD: Celtic
Details: Caleigh (pronounced kay-LEE) is a Gaelic word meaning "a musical gathering." United by a passion for folk and Celtic music, Caleigh consists of three members: Dee Furfaro (haunting vocals and bass), April Larson (vocals, guitar, Celtic harp, piano), Lenore Siems (fiddle, viola, mandolin, vocals). The group has been "branching out" into blues, classical, and newgrass. All three members compose original songs which are brought to the group for further by a collective development process. Caleigh is currently recording albums four and five simultaneously. One will include love songs from a wide range of styles. The other will include original compositions as well as folk songs such as Raven Song (Dave Carlson) and El Talismn (Rosana). The group continues to expand their stylistic repertoire including songs sung in Italian, French and Spanish.
