Broken Americana soaked in whiskey. 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, COUNTRY: Americana
Details: Artists that Drew has graced the stage with: Flyleaf, Dishwalla, Blue October, Bob Schneider, Gin Blossoms, David Allen Coe, MTV's Jackass and many more... The artist presently known as Drew Nix is best known as the front man of the granny award winning critical darlings An American Ocean. Most people (including 97.8 of his one billion loyal fans) do not realize that he is also a Nobel Prize winning scientist, playwright, poet, master chef, philanthropist, perfect physical specimen, star college football, baseball, and basketball player, all around swell guy, lover, fighter, marine biologist and swashbuckling archeologist as well as a world champion chess player who is on the brink of simultaneously discovering the cure for cancer and world hunger. What is even lesser known (and illegal to talk about in a handful of countries and a few southern states) is that this mythological god among men is also an incredibly talented singer song writer whos trials and tribulations have been prophesized in such early works as the Old Testament (of the Bible) and whos heroic deeds were chronicled quite accurately in Homers epic masterpiece The Iliad. Often referred to as Gods favorite person...ever Drew divides most of his time between feeding the starving children of the world, Test Piloting experimental navy aircraft, saving endangered antelope, and exploring the outer regions of space. He is also a Capricorn who enjoys long walks on the beach, red wine, spending time with loved ones, his summer cottage in Nebraska, and the crisp clean air of his beloved Wisconsin.
