The subject is all about relationships... from that special someone, to relationship with life, over to relationship with yourself, and the spiritual essence of being human. Questions of life are played with in a rhythmic and melodic inventiveness that is original, bright and full of sensory fulfillment. Edward Dee is a recognized artist in his community of Half Moon Bay, California and the San Francisco Bay area - a seasoned session guitarist with many credits under his belt. As a teacher, organic farmer and coordinator of a volunteer organization, Edward Dee has set out crafting a life rich and rewarding. Edward Dee's music has something to give. His songs are about You. His message is about You. Julia Harrell joins Edward once more with her masterful work on marimba and percussion. Garth Webber is a great welcome addition to this project as is John Lee Sanders and Edward's daughter, Stacey (a recording artist in her own right) singing back-up on two cuts. Recorded at Red Rooster Studios in Berkeley, California for New Bridge Records and mastered at Capitol Records Hollywood by Mark Chalecki, this project is a production of superb quality. This one will stay with you...
