Ultimate piano versions of classics like The Christmas Song and Take Five. Solotude features 17 jazz standards with distinctive arrangements that range from romantic-rhapsodic to intellectual-Monk style, while remaining loyal to bebop, swing and stride. 17 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo, JAZZ: Swing/Big Band Details: BOSTON, MA. -- Internationally acclaimed jazz pianist Eyran Katsenelenbogen releases his eight CD, Solotude. A pun on Ellington's Solitude, The CD's title combines the words Solo and Etud and reflect the idea of Eyran's entire career being a life-long extended musical study in playing solo. Eyran's sound is highly original and remains loyal to the rich tradition of American jazz piano.

Solotude features 17 jazz standards with distinctive arrangements that range from romantic-rhapsodic to intellectual-Monk style while encompassing bebop, swing and stride. This solo etud of 74 minutes was recorded in 6 different sessions between 2002 and 2005. It opens with a short studio version of Harnick's Do You Love Me? from Fiddler On The Roof and closes with a live version of the same song recorded two years earlier at a New England Conservatory faculty concert in Jordan Hall, Boston, MA. Solotude continues Eyran's musical journey, which started with tonal improvisation (Jazzonettes, Jazzis, 1989), continued with free improvisation (Formation, Eyran Records, 2001), and led to his highly successful traditional jazz solo piano CD It's Reigning Kats Dogs Bogen (Eyran Records, 2003). The CD will be distributed via CD Baby and its digital distribution program which includes iTunes, Rhapsody, BuyMusic, Emusic, Yahoo! Music, the new Napster, AOL's MusicNet, MusicMatch and additional physical and digital outlets. Testaments on Eyran's previous works: Katsenelenbogen recalls Tatum not only stylistically but technically as well. He has the same complete command of the keyboard, unerring sense of rhythm, and improvisational inventiveness the master jazz pianist possessed... These traits... make for as interesting an excursion in the realm of pianism as has been released... -- Dave Nathan, All Music Guide One should commend the undeniable qualities of this young composer, who knows how to turn the listener to a loyal companion for a journey on which one meets Bartok, Chick Corea, Keith Jarrett and the virtuosity of classical music - Horowitz, Pollini... -- Jazz Hot Magazine I consider Eyran Katsenelenbogen to be a pianist of extraordinary ability and a musician of rare quality... -- Paul Bley, pianist Eyran

Katsenelenbogen continues his international touring with The 2006 Solitude CD Release Jazz Piano World Concert Tour. Past engagements included the 2005 Tel-Aviv Jazz Festival, Teatro di Marcelllo in Rome, L'inoui in Luxembourg, Conservatory of Zurich, Altstadttrathaus Concert Hall in Braunschweig and Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) in Toronto.
