Whether it was playing soulful solo acoustic acts before fervent college kids, spinning at a New York City rave or grinding it out on stage with gritty metal and industrial acts, Fallen From Grace has spent years passing through the many circles of the American music scene. A five piece of two Acoustics, Bass, Percussion a DJ, Fallen From Grace uses its poignant lyrics and innate talent to mold the root essentials of rock, techno and hip-hop into a soundtrack for the new millennium. Drawing on influences from Dave Matthews, Incubus, and Dido, Fallen from Grace mixes those varied influences and deposits them into a mosaic of unique sounds and captivating harmonies that transcend across every genre of the musical spectrum. Following a rigid regimen of self-determination and dedication to their craft, Fallen From Grace has forged their own style of synco-melodic acoustic-rock that has allowed them to expand their audience from a handful of admirers to a mounting tide of followers. Crowds at the band's live sets are quickly consumed by the tripto-harmonic sounds that pour from the stage, capturing their minds and cascading through their souls. The memorable and melodious tracks are delivered with a business-like precision that reflects the personalities and professionalism of the band's members.
