Details: ISGAARD WOODEN HOUSES (RELEASE DATE: 24.10.2008) 4 years after her last album Isgaards new album Wooden Houses will be released. For sure its the most emotional and most intensive one of the german singer. ISGAARD: My influences come from singers like Kate Bush, Loreena Mac Kennitt and Madredeus, but as well in classical music and this time I combined those things of these two worlds, that I am fascinated by. Music is a kind of everlasting, elemental language and cannot be put in chains. This attitude was shared by Isgaards producer Jens Lck: The work on this record was like working on a project of myself; I have given everything and I have put a lot of passion into this music; and I was as ISGAARD very close to my most important influences (Anton Bruckner, Filmscores, Pink Floyd, Peter Gabriel) WOODEN HOUSES ist like a musical voyage, that you have to get into. If you close your eyes pictures will pass by like movies that wait for being realized. Landscapes of sound carried by Isgaards various voice. Therefore filmmaker Stefan Erdmann used some tunes of the album for the soundtrack to his movie ISLAND 63-66north (iceland.com). ISGAARDs crystal-clear voice in combination with fascinating pictures of the icelandic landscape create an extraordinary symbiosis.
