Dance Hall Reggae Dub and Hip Hop 9 MP3 Songs WORLD: Reggae, HIP HOP/RAP: East Coast

Details: Born in Ocho Rios Jamaica, JD started in music at the age of 7. He became a DJ sensation. JD moved to Milwaukee Wisconsin in 1991. Stepping up on the stage shortly after with such local acts as Road Damage, Kojo, David Robinson, Ronnie Gayle and Impulse 11 and then becoming the featured act with King Solomon. Spending 4 years with King Solomon JD has stepped down from the stage and into the studio. Patrick Patterson also from Milwaukee Wisconsin started his music at the age of 12 playing bass and performing vocals. He first stepped to the stage with such local acts as Mirage, Christophers Project, Kojo, Eddie Butts Band, King Solomon and Paul Cebal and The Milwaukeeans. Still performing Patrick teamed up with JD to produce the music on this CD. The music on this CD is inspired by the tones and culture of Jamaica and Africa. JD brings on Reggae Dance Hall with a suave theme to the summit. Patrick with his love and experience with Caribbean music ranging from Calypso to Ska, uses those styles plus playing bass, guitar, keyboards and programming the drums and horns plus performing background vocals to produce the music on this CD.
