Long-form orchestral music designed for the digital ensemble. A blend of classical, world and post 20th century art music. 10 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Virtual Orchestra, CLASSICAL: Contemporary Details: The Greeks had two words for time: Chronos and Kairos. Chronos, or clock time, is the time we base much of our life on, it is most evidently expressed in our standard of the nine to five workweek, as well as in the twelve month year and the 24-hour day. Kairos, on the other hand, is a subjective sense of time, it is the kind of time the composer works with - it is the time we experience while gardening, falling in love, or involved in some creative activity. It is this sense of time which has inspired the title of this compact disc.
