Symphonic Melodic Hard Rock fronted by powerful female vocalist with emphasis on strong songwriting and arrangement. 11 MP3 Songs ROCK: Hard Rock, ROCK: Progressive Rock Details: Lana Lane has completed another of her special "collection" releases following in the footsteps of her two previous Ballad Collection albums from 1998 and 2000. The new album is appropriately entitled COVERS COLLECTION and contains 11 audiophile recordings of classic hard rock and progressive rock songs spanning the 70s through the 90s. Guest musicians include drummers Gregg Bissonette (David Lee Roth, Steve Vai, Joe Satriani, ELO, etc.), Nick D'Virgilio (Spock's Beard, Genesis) and Ed Warby (Ayreon, Star One, Gorefest) along with guitarists Mark McCrite (Rocket Scientists), Arjen Lucassen, Neil Citron and Gabriel Moses, fretless bass icon Tony Franklin (Blue Murder, The Firm, Whitesnake, etc.) and the familiar Lana Lane string players Novi Novog (viola) and Cameron Stone (cello). The songs were largely chosen from requests by fans and friends over the years, and the ultimate criterion for their inclusion was that they were all extremely melodic and memorable tracks. Not surprisingly, Lana interprets each song uniquely with her own inimitable style, power and grace.
