She is heard regularly on national TV and radio spots, including Folgers, Valtrex, JC Penney, Nabisco, Pillsbury, and was the voice of the Sally Jesse Raphael Show Theme, and has performed live or in the studio with luminaries Billy Joel, Dar Williams, Lesley Gore, Ritchie Blackmore, and Ce Ce Wynans, among others. Her songs have been featured on MTV's "Undressed", as well as many other TV and film projects. Lorraine's CD, "Languishing In Turbulence", is the perfect vehicle for this petite powerhouse. Her music and lyrics touch on deeply personal and emotional themes, from finding the seeds of growth and hope amidst the ashes of post break-up despair ("Thank You"), to fighting back against the misuse of faith, when beliefs are born out of fear rather than love, and used to subvert our true spirituality ("Religion"). Bringing the lyrics home are radio hit melodies, with music that is both brilliant and raw, keeping the listener's heart right on pace with the meaning of the songs. The artist states, "This album was a symbolic gesture of freedom, allowing me to be myself, with all my idiosyncrasies and quirks. It's really about moving on. I realized what I have known all along - that as an artist, when I give myself permission to just be the most me that I can, then I give permission to the whole world to just be who they really are, too." Lorraine claims, "I sing to live, and live to sing!" To that end, she's played innumerable legendary east coast clubs, including The Bottom Line, The Fez, CBGB's, Meow Mix, The Pontiac Grill, and The Saint. Last summer she performed with CDBaby.com's TourBaby Tour, and has played benefits including: the NYC Marathon, GoGirlsMusic Fest at the Hard Rock Caf, NYC's Puss N Boots benefit for the Battered Women's Resource Center, and two benefit concerts on September 11th as part of the nationwide September Concert, and to mark the release of a non-profit organization and compilation CD that she founded, Sounds of Hope NYC, raising funds for the children of the victims. Lorraine's newest passion is producing other artists. She's currently working with several rising stars! She also spends her time as a songwriting, vocal, and performance coach for the Songwriters Hall of Fame and with her private students.
