These Aussie bards have created a masterpiece with uilleann pipes, mandolin, harp, violin, fretless bass, bodhran, keys, 12 string and more. 15 MP3 Songs WORLD: Celtic, FOLK: Modern Folk Details: Lothloriens music is almost a genre on its own, playing both instrumental and song penned mostly by founder Nic Morrey (1993-present). The sound is unique and fresh with depth, expressed in a multitude of instruments capturing the journey of mood and emotion in a bard like fashion. Artist Information Instrumentation Nic Morrey 12 String guitar/didgeridoo/lead vocal Joe Granieri Uilleann pipes/keys/darabuka Mei Lai Swan Violin/backing vocals Fingal Capaldi Accordion/Celtic harp/whistles Jean Cabon Fretless Bass Erin Sulman Bodhran/congas Corey Romeo - Mondolin/Mandola Carl Pannuzzo Kit drum In creating this complex tapestry of sound, Lothloriens main influences include Donovan, The Incredible String Band, Andreas Vollenweider, Dead Can Dance and Peter Gabriel. When you cross all this with Lothloriens variety of instruments and mystical lyrical content, the sound is unique and unlike any folk music you might come across. Drawing on the increasingly multicultural nature of Australia, the members of the band are also unique in character, energy and presentation. They will often dress in costume, taking their listener on a bards journey such as Celtic harp accompanying spoken word as introduction to compositions. Lothlorien survive on festival performances and sell their CDs independently. They are proud to have sold the most CDs out of 350 acts on their first appearance at Woodford, Australias biggest folk festival. They have been repeatedly invited back, always selling within the top 10. To back up the bands environmental message, they are proud to donate a percentage of CD sales (so far donating over $6000) to either the Australian Bush Heritage Fund bushheritageor towards the planting of trees on festival sites visited by Lothlorien.
