It has been the continuous striving and desire to attain oneness with God and all of humanity that have guided my behavior and influenced my music. Even though the goal of union always seems slightly out of reach, the occasional glimpses of Gods glory have brought me lasting joy and peace. Even though the songs on this CD have a flowing improvisational style, it should be pointed out that each note was meticulously crafted and fits into a form and structure as rigid as any classical music. The mood of the music on this CD is meant to reflect the beauty of Gods love and the peace that it can bring.
