Reviews from fans and air-conditioners "... energetic and addictive I found myself craving more..." . . . Derek Wilson - Waves music festival 2002 "Great vocals. You can tell this is a well seasoned band. Rock with a touch of blues and funky all in one package. The female back up vocals are awesome too. That girl can sing! Good production. Good crossover band. They should do well in most of the markets. " . . . Jamline Review, Garageband "Lyrically I love this band. Their subject matter runs the full spectrum of the human condition. It's as if a man's naked soul is exposed as he plunges through the heights and depths of a barbed- wire eternity. " . . . Fan "Rarely does a band combine so many elements into such a unified sound. Throw all the best musical influences of the last thirty years into a blender, add a splash of blues and a dash of soul, strain it and serve, and you have Naked Soul." . . . Fan "Their brand of funk/rock has a timeless retro quality to it. Catchy, straight ahead and to the point!" . . . Fan "Essentially a bluesy, funk based rock and roll band, their music has a crisp vitality to it. As I observe people listening to this band, it's as if something comes over them and they find themselves giving in to their pulsating feet and gyrating hip bones." . . . Fan
