ReDuX take their original Latin, cool and funk jazz and infuse it with electronica and urban beats for lounge, chill, cafe-hip atmospheres. ReDuX:RMx Volume 1 is nonstop contemporary jazz for the urban soul. ReDuX and the single Cafe Salsa-on iTunes now. 13 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Down Tempo, JAZZ: Acid Jazz Details: Infectious rhythms drive the jazz-electronica tracks on ReDuX:RMx VOLUME 1. No samples here - the loops and beats are played live by a collective of young Toronto jazz players. The catchy, original Latin, funk and cool jazz compositions are infused with urban rhythms and electronic elements. Sound bytes in different languages interweave each track, creating a nonstop, cosmopolitan caf atmosphere. Think Miles Davis, Chick Corea - the Brazilian sounds of Jobim - these influences surge through these tracks. The core of ReDuX is former L.A. based, Columbia Pictures TV music supervisor, Toronto media composer Archangel Menezes and American-Canadian guitarist Eddie Paton, who played on Robert Michaels' Juno award winning Warner album, ALLEGRO, and is currently touring with Billboard world music winner, Johannes Linstead. ReDuX:RMx VOLUME 1, produced by Juno nominated, L.A. Urban Producer Kenny Moran, features Nelly Furtado's keys man, Joel Joseph, jacksoul's Davide Drenzo on drums and other players from the Toronto jazz and R&B scene. Perfect for loft-living, coffee sipping, late night city driving, and before or after clubbing, ReDuX: RMx VOLUME 1 is a soundtrack of contemporary jazz for the urban soul!
