Details: The 2nd album from Ryan and the Lions, "Tunes from my Room Volume One," was written, recorded, and produced by Ryan in his apartment in New York City during 2008... In a brand new city, with no money for a studio and still putting together a band, I started recording some songs at home. I played every instrument I know how to play and learned a few that I didnt. As I got into it more I realized that I was making my second album. These songs trace my first year living in New York City and recall some memories of my time living in Ireland. Im very excited to share and present the first volume of Tunes from my Room. So here it is... songs straight out of the nest, naked, raw, and inside out... Thanks for listening:) - Ryan
