Chief Joseph and his tribe walked hundreds of miles on their quest to freedom. All the way the were pursued by the US Calvary and finally caught 40 miles from the Canadian border. On surrendering Chief Joseph stated: 'I will fight no more forever'. In chains he was sent off to an inhospitable reservation 200 miles away from his native land, where, according to the reservation doctor, he died of a broken heart. Seven beautiful unique tracks that invoke the Spirit of the native american indian with upbeat dance music.
