Heart-probing lyrics set to acoustic guitars, strings, and percussion. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Yes I'm writing my own bio. Personally, I think most people write their own bio...they just write it in 3rd person so they can say nice things about themselves. But that's ok, I don't have a problem with it. I just have tendencies to make fun of my self, so I didn't want you reading this and going, man, who's the jerk who wrote this bio...some friend. So, yeah, let it be known that it is I who will explain who I am. I was born in Olathe, KS, March 17, 1984. By age 5, I was throwing knives at people when I got angry (don't worry I had really bad aim), and by age 6 my parents corrected that with multiple tiers of well deserved and needed punishment. At age 10 I got a new best friend named Jesus, and He's been changing me to be more like Him ever since. Now Jesus and I tour the world together; I speak, sing, and play for Him so people can know Him and who He is, and He tells me what to say and pays the bills. Pretty sweet deal really. I started writing songs when I was 14 or 15, and they pretty much stunk. But that was fun, and I learned, took 2 years of music school, 4 semesters of Music Theory, 4 semesters of voice lessons (got a B the last semester) and now most of them aren't so bad. Hey, you might even enjoy them. But even if you don't, I hope that you can get to know more about Jesus by hearing them. In 2004 (after only 2 of 4 hard semesters of voice lessons and really bad habit breaking), I started recording a cd with a crazily talented guy named Andrew Osenga. Now he's touring like crazy with some small obscure band named Caedmon's Call who he sings and writes songs for. I guess when you sell a million plus cds, people will come listen to you. But, we finally finished it, and you can have it and call it your very own, or just admire the artwork and use the cd as a frisbee or drink coaster. As for now, I am in Japan loving God, loving people, and loving the arts and the creativity and beauty of God that is all over them.
