How many times have you seen a HUGE product launch, heard how much money the marketer has made and wished that was you? ... wished it was you accumulating sale after sale after sale... How many times have you wished you knew what they did that made their product launches so successful? How do they get so many people queued up -- so desperate to buy a $1000 (or more) product, which sells thousands of copies in just a few short hours? We are all told by those in the know that we need to create our own products. What we are not told is what to do after they have been created. Most marketers launch a product with no audience and then wonder what went wrong... They wonder why the sales arent streaming in...
