Having your website on Google's first page of search results is easy if you take the right steps. Just think of all the free traffic you could get to your site with that result. your ticket to big profits awaits.... Having a listing on page one of Google is like winning the lottery in a way. I mean there are only a few spots on the first page of the results for any search term and potentially millions of websites trying to get there. So how could anyone say that this is easy? Well the simple matter is that most of the sites that are on page one are there because no one else has done a good enough job of knocking them off. By using good fundamentals and doing proper research you are well on your way to a page one listing. Here is just some of what you will learn: How to find the low hanging fruit in the keyword research garden The preferred website platform for best results What you must do on your site to get the desired results What you must do off of your site to get the desired results and lots more...
