Planning ahead this way will allow you to save a ton of money on groceries simply because you won't be making a mad dash your nearby store to pick up items you don't have at the last minute. It'll also save you hurried trips to the local McDonalds because you ran out of options. You'll also avoid 'impulse buying' this way. Save the menu for the week in a separate file along with the grocery list, just for the record.

Once you get more used to planning your weekly meals, you can tackle a monthly menu. This isn't as difficult as it sounds. Once you get used to buying items in bulk you can cycle a number of your weekly menus into a workable monthly menu. (Save the file on your computer with the month attached; for example, Octoberlist.doc for the month of October). You can establish a whole new tradition of having a
