

Expanding Horizons In Bioethics

DOWNLOAD HERE

From the contents: Contributors. Acknowledgements. Preface. Introduction.- I. Science and Society. The Past, Present and Future of Human Nature. Unethical Contexts for Ethical Questions. Human Subject Protections: Some Thoughts on Costs and Benefits in the Humanistic Disciplines. Secret State Experiments and Medical Ethics. Cross-Cultural Considerations in Medical Ethics: The Case of Human Subjects Research.- II. Medical Ethics. Reproductive Rights and Health in the Developing World. Genetic Testing of Human Embryos: Ethical Challenges and Policy Choices. Choosing Our Children: The Uneasy Alliance of Law and Ethics in John Robertson s Thought. The Heart Disease Epidemic That Wasn't: Lessons Learned from Death Certificate Statistics. Recent History of End-of-Life Care and Implications for the Future.- III. Environmental Ethics. The Pragmatic Power and Promise of Theoretical Environmental Ethics: Forging a New Discourse. The Expanding Circle and Moral Community Naturally Speaking. Science, Conservation and Global Security. Energy, Technology and Climate: Running Out of Gas.- Index. EAN/ISBN : 9781402030628 Publisher(s): Springer Netherlands Format: ePub/PDF Author(s): Galston, Arthur W. - Peppard, Christiana Z.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: