"A painter of musical vistas both tender and sweeping, with a voice as clear and rich as a star-swept Canadian winter sky." -Wolf/Furey Productions 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Alternative Folk, FOLK: Modern Folk Details: Her music is regularly played on CBC Radio One, has repeatedly made the top 30 for CHMA Radio, and won her the Mount Allison University ASCAR for Singer-Songwriter of the Year in 2005. Allison grew up in Sudbury, Ontario, where she spent her childhood playing music and romping around in the great Northern Ontario woods. She released her independent 9-song debut album, 'Allison Lickley', in 2001. Allison took the next five years to study and play music in the Canadian Maritimes. Following her studies she moved to Montreal where she released her independent EP, 'Late September', in October 2006. Since then her music has appeared on numerous compilation albums, has been chosen for soundtracks, and has been arranged for and performed by a choir. She has opened for such Canadian talents as Ox, Courtney Wing, and Andrea Revel. Allison currently lives in Montreal, Quebec, where she released her new album, You Might Find Me Here, in 2008. People who are interested in Joni Mitchell Sarah McLachlan Norah Jones should consider this download.
