Smooth R&B with an urban twist. 17 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Contemporary urban, URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover Details: The voice of Justin JC Crowder offers music lovers all over the world a distinctive, soulful R&B sound. The 21-year-old, Nashville native captivates audiences not only during live performances; but also, with his debut album, All of Me. Throughout his career, JC has opened for major artists including 112, Eve, Amerie, Ginuwine, Sole, Twista, Kem, Javier, Take 6, Lyfe, Ce Ce Winans, and Yolanda Adams, and a marquee spot opening for L.L. Cool J in Atlanta during the 2003 NBA All-Star Game weekend. He has also been the feature artist at numerous venues across the country and abroad. In 2005, he was an SEA (Southern Entertainment Awards) Artist of the Year nominee. With his uniquely textured voice, JC has been requested to sing the National Anthem for several sporting events including Atlanta Hawks and Orlando Magic games and also performs the theme song for Nashvilles WQQK-FM 92.1 Sunday morning gospel show, Gospel Inspirations with Connie Denell. JCs introduction to singing came as a member of the Nashville Youth Chorus, where the then 9 year old performed and learned the basic elements of his art. From these humble beginnings, JC moved on to experience the thrill of a roaring audience at the Showtime at the Apollo as a member of the acappella quintet Nu Image. While JC's passion for music grew, he also desired a college education. He took three short years to attend Tennessee State University, Nashville, Tennessee, earning a bachelors degree in Business Administration with Magna Cum Laude honors. Currently he is pursuing his graduate degree and teaching math at his high school Alma Mata. In 2003, JC launched his solo career when he signed with Free for All/So So Def Records. However, it was later to JCs best interest to leave the label and search for a new label home. While continuing to work with producer Mondo Grimes, he reunited with writer and producer, Tre Stylz. Through this union, JC refined his talents as a musician, multi-genre music writer, and a brehtaking performer. According to Escape Magazine, JC is one of the rarest talents to come from R&B in the last 20 years. All The Rage newspaper stated that JC exceeds expectations both on and off stage. As an independent artist, JC is more than ready to make his mark in the music industry.
