A combination of original acoustic music set to the lyrics of Shakespeare's songs and poems 14 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, COUNTRY: Bluegrass Details: Joe Hillyer is a New York City area based songwriter. He has adapted 14 songs from the plays and poems of Shakespeare and given them a contemporary folk and bluegrass setting, featuring an acoustic ensemble of guitar, fiddle, dobro, mandolin, bass, banjo, harmonica, and lots of harmonies. While this collection of original music explores the connection of Elizabethan musical traditions with its later cousin bluegrass and Appalachian mountain music, the main emphasis of these songs is on the beauty of Shakespeare's lyrical structure, and how relevant they still are to the modern listener.
