ROCK: Modern Rock, POP: Folky Pop Details: ---scroll down to read and write reviews!--- Growing up in Austin, Texas, Kim Powell was surrounded by a super rich and exciting music scene. Early on she had the opportunity to see and hear on a regular basis, the likes of Willie Nelson, Stevie Ray Vaughn, and other Texas giants. And at the same time, was heavily influenced by legendary 80's Texas punk bands like, the Big Boys and the Butthole Surfers. These formative and colorful influences in Powell's youth are most likely what give her music its eclectic and soulful vibe, yet plants it firmly on solid pop-rock-alternative ground. Garnering comparisons to Mazzy Star, and Sheryl Crow, Powell still brings her own sense of rhythm and voice that is uniquely her own.
