Details: With his strong vocal, characteristic melodies and warm attitude, 22 year old Lars Andresen presents his own songs in a reliable way. His debutalbum, A part of this puzzle, is released the 31st of August 2009. Growing up in a small town in Norway named Sarpsborg, his life in sports kept his singing and songwriting from noticable development for some years. As a 19 year old, he moved to the capitol, attended a music-college named Staffeldts, and dived into the life of an artist with the attitude of a top-athlete. After three years with constructive work and more than 60 liveshows, the hardworking musician now proves that high ambitions and strong-minded-thinking also provides positive results inside of the music-business. Along with his musicbachelor-studies, he has worked as a management, bookingbureau, technician, producer and record-label for his own career, and is today one of the most visited norwegian independant artists on Myspace. To be given a grant for his work from Innovasjon Norge surely proves that his talent is well respected. A part of this puzzle is a well composed record. It has a great flow, a large amount of catchy choruses and good guitar-riffs, all accompanied by beautiful and melodic pianotunes. It is easy to get the vibe of years with perspectival development throughout this record, and surely this is something that Mr.Andresen continuously will provide in the future. He is an out of the crowd-, interesting- and worth-listening-to artist. "Continuous hard work and belief in your talent can make you go a long way in todays globalized community," he says.
