Rich McCready is a Traditiona
Country Music artistHe is currently planning a tour in the mid-west for his 2005 record release.
McCready had three hit songs in the mid 90's for Magnatone Records in Nashville. You have also seen him on CMT, TNN and GAC. He was named CMT rising star in 1997 and charted 2 top 40 singles, "Hangin On" and "Thinking Strait." He also released "When Hell Freezes Over" and "That just About Covers It" before Magnatone records closed their doors and released all artists. Rich has since moved from Nashville back to his native mid-west roots where he has finished his new album for American Original Records. He hopes to carry the flag for traditional country music and western swing in the up coming years. He is very concerned of the new future of country music. McCready is also an extremly fan based artist and spends much time listening to what they have to say about the industry. You may also contact Rich and his label group at richmccreadyfor futher information and Rich McCready merchandise.
