Melodic, lyric driven songs that run the gamut from pop to rock, celtic to psychedelic to folk and country.

12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, POP: 60's Pop Details: This is my first CD; performed, recorded and mixed in my apartment, A.K.A. Bloody Mess Studios. As such, the music has a definite "home-made" feel to it. At least one person has commented that that is a good thing. I hope you'll think so. A bunch of these songs have finished as runner-up, semi-finalist, or finalist in the VH-1 Song of the Year Contest, and the U.K. Songwriting Contest, including "Jeni", Cold Spaghetti", "Girl From Provincetown", and "Disarray". Below are critiques by industry professionals from the VH-1 Song of the Year Contest. SONG WRITER NAME OF SONG Robert Befumo Girl From Provincetown REVIEWER ID REVIEWER PROFESSION R051509K Senior Publishing Editor COMMENTS ON EMOTIONAL IMPACT Your lyrics seem to reflect on everyday life. A lighthearted song with an almost addictive melody. The musicianship is excellent and the vocals, while at times hard to understand, are very suitable. The title is a poignant and wonderful choice. COMMENTS ON TECHNICAL EVALUATION: The vocals are a bit difficult to understand in places but have a great sound. The music is fresh, and original. The structure and composition are simple yet strong. Overall, this is a technically strong song.
