Pop/Rock/Acoustic 11 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Acoustic Details: I know bios are supposed to be like serious and tell about the artist accomplishments and critical praise. Well I dont know if I have that many accomplishments and most critics would/will probably hate my music. Im not trying to save the world. Im not trying to reinvent the wheel or be the next cool indie artist. I just want to write great songs. I draw from my experiences in life. My relationships, my fears, my struggles everything that surrounds me. My songs are honest and I think thats why people can relate to them and have a connection. You can listen for yourself and tell me what you think. I know this isnt much of a bio, but its me and thats all that I got.
