Country yet jazzy with an easy listening soft-rock overtone 13 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Alt-Country, JAZZ: Contemporary Jazz Details: Sasha Eleyce Starting in entertainment at the early age of two, Sasha began her career on the fireplace hearth belting out Zippity Do Dah into a plastic microphone for any audience that she could gather. By the age of three Sasha began intense training in the dramatic arts and at age four landed her first role as the youngest child in the King and I. She has always felt at home on the stage and has been performing and training ever since. Sasha grew up in the Washington DC area and trained vocally with Richard Hartzel, Charla Rowe, Edrie Means and even traveled to NYC to train with top belting coach Bob Marks. She developed a four octave range that crosses genres with power and ease. Several summers were spent in LA training with the top acting coaches in the nation. Her training also includes more than eight years of ballet, tap and jazz. Coaches, producers and directors have all raved about what a delight it is to work with her. As early as middle school recruiters from both Yale and Princeton were pushing for a commitment to their musical programs. In high school she attended the Musical Theater Academy. She was selected by the Shenandoah Conservatory as the "Must Have Student of the Year" and later attended Shenandoah Conservatory studying musical theater. Sasha became a member of the Screen Actors Guild at the age of seven when she landed a recurring role on the NBC television series, Homicide Life on the Street for three seasons. Sasha has also worked on dozens of other film projects since leaving Homicide. Performing in over 40 musicals, operas and stage plays, she has grown up on the stage which is her home away from home. Some of her favorite roles include Rizzo in Grease, Dorothy in The Wizard of Oz, Evelyn Nesbit in Ragtime. Fans adore the way she crosses genres with ease and perfection... Her Fall tour is perhaps among the most awaited of the season. We look forward to sharing her talent, warth, charisma and personality with the world. Please
